

CONSTITUTION 101

Module 10: First Amendment: Speech, Press, Religion, Assembly, and Petition

10.4 Activity Guide

SPEECH QUOTATION ANALYSIS

In this activity, you will examine free speech quotes from landmark Supreme Court cases and compare them to the big ideas shared in the video.

Review the quotations from famous Free Speech Court Cases, then fill in the chart below.

Principle: Freedom of conscience is an unalienable right because people have the right and duty to think for themselves.
Identify a quotation that connects with this principle.	Summarize the quotation and write one to two sentences explaining it in your own words.	Identify and define any words that you do not understand.	Explain how the quote connects to the broader conclusion that the Supreme Court reached in the case.
Principle: Free speech makes representatives accountable to “We the People.”
Identify a quotation that connects with this principle.	Summarize the quotation and write one to two sentences explaining it in your own words.	Identify and define any words that you do not understand.	Explain how the quote connects to the broader conclusion that the Supreme Court reached in the case.

CONSTITUTION 101

Module 10: First Amendment: Speech, Press, Religion, Assembly, and Petition

10.4 Activity Guide

Principle: Free speech is necessary for the discovery of truth and the rejection of falsehood.
Identify a quotation that connects with this principle.	Summarize the quotation and write one to two sentences explaining it in your own words.	Identify and define any words that you do not understand.	Explain how the quote connects to the broader conclusion that the Supreme Court reached in the case.
Principle: Free speech allows the public discussion necessary for democratic self-government.
Identify a quotation that connects with this principle.	Summarize the quotation and write one to two sentences explaining it in your own words.	Identify and define any words that you do not understand.	Explain how the quote connects to the broader conclusion that the Supreme Court reached in the case.