NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER PRESENTS SPECIAL BASEBALL PROMOTIONS In conjunction with Baseball As America exhibit

Philadelphia, PA – Visitors to the National Constitution Center can participate in exciting promotional events throughout the run of the Baseball As America exhibition. Certain to be a grand slam for the whole family, these promotional activities provide fun opportunities to join in the spirit of the baseball season when visiting Center. The schedule of promotions is as follows:

Baseball Ballpark Special

February 15 through May 11, 2008

$19 for adults, $18 for seniors ages 65 and over, and $13 for children ages 4-12

Guests can be sure to cover all of their bases when they come to see Baseball As America by purchasing the “Baseball Ballpark Special,” which includes admission to Baseball As America, admission to the Center’s main exhibition, and a voucher for a hot dog, soda, and a box of Cracker Jacks in the Delegates’ Restaurant.

Amtrak Promotions

February 15 through May 11, 2008

The National Constitution Center will create an online quiz to test visitors’ knowledge of baseball. The names of each participant will be entered into a drawing, and a winner will be chosen at random to win a Freedom Family membership from the Center and two roundtrip tickets on an Acela Express from Amtrak. In addition, Amtrak will allow National Constitution Center visitors to use a 50% off companion fare code for travel on select days.

Camden River Sharks Promotions

February 15 through May 11, 2008

ADD ONE/PROMOTIONS

Throughout the run of Baseball As America, the National Constitution Center and the Camden River Sharks will present promotional opportunities for the whole family, including “Baseball As America” night at a River Sharks home game, special giveaways, street team and mascot appearances, and more. In addition, the Center is offering $2 off adult admission price for visitors who show a River Sharks ticket stub, and the River Sharks are offering a discount for patrons who show a Baseball As America ticket stub.

From February 15 through May 11, 2008, the National Constitution Center will host Baseball As America, the first major exhibition to examine the relationship between baseball and American culture. The 6,000-square-foot exhibition is organized by The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, New York, and marks the first time the treasures of the Hall of Fame have left their legendary home to tour the country. The national tour of Baseball As America is sponsored by Ernst & Young LLP. The exhibition is presented locally by Chevrolet. CBS 3 is the official media partner for the Center’s showing of Baseball As America and the Philadelphia Phillies are a promotional partner for the exhibition.

Admission to Baseball As America is $15 for adults, $14 for seniors ages 65 and up, and $9 for children ages 4-12. Active military personnel and children ages 3 and under are free. Group rates are also available. Admission to the Center’s main exhibition, The Story of We the People, including the award-winning theater production “Freedom Rising”, is included. iPod audio tours are also available and cost $2 for members and $3 for non-members. For ticket information, call 215.409.6700 or visit www.constitutioncenter.org.

The National Constitution Center, located at 525 Arch St. on Philadelphia’s Independence Mall, is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of the U.S. Constitution and the ideas and values it represents. The Center serves as a museum, an education center, and a forum for debate on constitutional issues. The museum dramatically tells the story of the Constitution from Revolutionary times to the present through more than 100 interactive, multimedia exhibits, film, photographs, text, sculpture and artifacts, and features a powerful, award-winning theatrical performance, “Freedom Rising”. The Center also houses the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach, which serves as the hub for national constitutional education.
