

ADD ONE/INDEPENDENCE DAY

On Saturday, June 30, 2007 from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., the 5th Pennsylvania Regiment/4th Battalion will set up camp on the National Constitution Center front lawn, complete with an infantry unit, rifle unit, surgical group, and more! The Regiment will show visitors what life was like for soldiers during the Revolutionary War and allow them to experience colonial life through living history demonstrations. For more information about the 5th Pennsylvania Regiment, visit www.5thpa.org.

Visitors to the Center can feel the beat and move their feet with the Conestoga Angels Marching Corps, an award-winning drill team from Philadelphia on Saturday, June 30 and Sunday, July 1, 2007 at 1:30 p.m.

The Center will also offer child visitors the opportunity to have their faces painted in the "Face" the Nation event. Visitors will get into the thrill of July 4th with our patriotic face painting and temporary tattoos done by an on-site tattooist.

In addition, the Center will host an official Sunoco Welcome America! event on Wednesday, July 4, 2007 from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. During the Happy Birthday America event, visitors can come down to the nation's most historic mile to enjoy a sweet taste of American history!

Visitors can also learn more about our nation's history by experiencing the Center's main exhibition, The Story of We the People, and the Center's special summer exhibition, Eyewitness: American Originals from the National Archives.

From May 25 through September 3, 2007 the National Constitution Center will host Eyewitness: American Originals from the National Archives. The exhibition presents first-hand accounts of watershed events in American history. Through letters, diaries, photographs, and audio and film recordings from the National Archives and its Presidential libraries, visitors to the Eyewitness exhibition will gain new and unique insights into well-known occurrences.

The exhibition was created by the National Archives and Record Administration, Washington, DC, and the Foundation for the National Archives. The national tour of Eyewitness is sponsored by The Boeing Company. CBS 3 Eyewitness News is the official media partner for the Constitution Center's showing of the Eyewitness exhibit.

Funding for the National Constitution Center's changing exhibits program has been made possible through a $1 million grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

CBS 3 (KYW-TV) is part of CBS Television Stations, a division of CBS Corporation consisting of 39 stations, including 21 CBS, 11 The CW, three MyNetworkTV and four independent stations not affiliated with major networks.

The National Constitution Center, located at 525 Arch St. on Philadelphia's Independence Mall, is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of the U.S. Constitution and the ideas and values it represents. Opened on July 4, 2003, the Constitution Center is a museum, an education center, and a forum for debate on constitutional issues. The museum dramatically tells the story of the Constitution from Revolutionary times to the present through more than 100 interactive, multimedia exhibits, film, photographs, text, sculpture and artifacts, and features a powerful, award-winning theatrical performance, "Freedom Rising". The Center also houses the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach, which serves as the hub for national constitutional education. Also, serving as a nonpartisan forum for constitutional discourse, the Center presents – without endorsement – programs that contain diverse viewpoints on a broad range of issues. For more information, call 215.409.6700 or visit www.constitutioncenter.org.
