HEADED TO THE WHITE HOUSE EXHIBITION SPONSORS

Philadelphia, PA – The Headed to the White House exhibition at the National Constitution Center was made possible through the generous support of The Annenberg Foundation, The Pew Charitable Trusts, and The John S. and James L. Knight Foundation. The exhibition is also sponsored locally by Pennoni Associates and Beneficial Bank.

“We are thrilled that each of these respected organizations has chosen to support the Headed to the White House exhibition,” said National Constitution Center President and CEO Joseph M. Torsella. “It is through their generosity that we can continue to share the importance of active citizenship every day in new and engaging ways.”

As part of their sponsorship, all regional Beneficial Bank branches will display Headed to the White House brochures, featuring a $1 off admission coupon, from September through December. Customized pocket Constitutions will also be available. In addition, the Philadelphia branch of Beneficial Bank will launch a “Vote for Your Favorite President” contest in order to promote the exhibition. Contest winners will receive items from the Center’s Museum Store.

About Headed to the White House

From September 17, 2008 through December 14, 2008, the National Constitution Center will debut Headed to the White House. Developed by the Constitution Center, Headed to the White House is the only exhibition of its kind, uniquely created for students, teachers, and families during the height of the election season. The 3,000 square foot exhibition connects visitors with the excitement, pageantry, and importance of presidential elections through role-playing opportunities and interactive experiences.

CBS 3 is the official media partner for the exhibition. CBS 3 (KYW-TV) and The CW Philly 57 (WPSG-TV) are part of CBS Television Stations, a division of CBS Corporation.

Admission to Headed to the White House is $15 for adults, $14 for seniors ages 65 and up, and $9 for children ages 4-12. Active military personnel and children ages 3 and under are free. Group rates are also available. Admission to the Center's main exhibition, The Story of We the People, including the award-winning theater production "Freedom Rising", is included. For ticket information, call 215.409.6700 or visit www.constitutioncenter.org.

About the National Constitution Center

The National Constitution Center, located at 525 Arch St. on Philadelphia's Independence Mall, is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of the U.S. Constitution and the ideas and values it represents. The Center serves as a museum, an education center, and a forum for debate on constitutional issues. The museum dramatically tells the story of the Constitution from Revolutionary times to the present through more than 100 interactive, multimedia exhibits, film, photographs, text, sculpture and artifacts, and features a powerful, award-winning theatrical performance, "Freedom Rising". The Center also houses the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach, which serves as the hub for national constitutional education. Also, as a nonpartisan forum for constitutional discourse, the Center presents – without endorsement – programs that contain diverse viewpoints on a broad range of issues.
